WHAT: South Hillsboro Master Plan Open House

WHEN: Tuesday, November 12 – 5:30 to 7:30 pm

WHERE: Rosedale Elementary School Cafeteria, 3963 SW 229th Avenue

Open House participants will discuss how South Hillsboro can best grow and connect to the rest of the city. Meeting participants will learn about the characteristics that make South Hillsboro special and share their thoughts about the future designs and locations of homes, businesses, roads and parks.

“This is an important opportunity to shape the future of our community,” said Project Manager Jeannine Rustad. “We encourage everyone to stay involved as the Master Plan becomes more defined. The more community members are engaged, the better the plan.”

Background

The City of Hillsboro, in partnership with property owners, project partners and community members, is preparing a Master Plan for South Hillsboro. The Master Plan builds on the South Hillsboro Community Plan adopted by the City Council in 2012. The South Hillsboro area is 1,400 acres of homes, farms and open space. As envisioned in the Community Plan, over time, South Hillsboro will become a complete residential community, providing a variety of housing options to meet the needs of current and future residents. Built around a town and neighborhood center, development in South Hillsboro will be integrated into the natural landscape in a way that protects the open space and surrounding farms that are the City’s heritage. South Hillsboro is expected to offer the amenities that the community wants: jobs, parks, shops and schools. The plan area will provide ways and choices for getting around – whether by walking, biking, driving or transit.
